Long Hunt for Assorted Bandits Ends in Home of Relative

Shots Sister-in-Law and Detective, Then Takes His Own Life

ST. FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—(By A. P. Night Wire.)—A police detective who had been hunting the country since early in 1921, Walter Caster, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Anna Wilcox, shot and killed Detective Timothy Baker, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Baker Caster, and himself in the home of his mother, Mrs. Minnie Caster, here today. Detective Caster, also fell with a serious wound to his head as the result of Caster's murderous onslaught and was fighting last night.

The death of Walter Caster is the most terrible thing that could have happened to him. Henry Wilcox, a police detective, was in the house in connection with the case of his wife, Mrs. Anna Wilcox, who had been shot and killed by Caster. Caster, returning to the city last night, was followed by Wilcox, who was waiting for him on the street. Caster, who was armed with a revolver, shot Wilcox in the head, killing him instantly. Caster then shot his sister-in-law, Mrs. Baker Caster, and himself.

MILLER, KEEPS HIS SECRET

"Poor Lithuanian" in Chicago Police Slaying Trial Balks Prosecution's Hope for Information

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—When John Miller, the "poor Lithuanian" in Chicago's greatest murder trial, left the witness stand for the last time today in the courtroom, he was close to the gallows for his testimony in the shooting of Acting Police Lieutenant Lawrence Lyons, but he had remained unshaken in his refusal to recognize in any way "Big Tim" Murphy, Fred Mader Lyons, "Charley" the dope fiend.

On redirect examination, Miller said that he had told Mr. Goddard, the defense attorney, that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile. Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile. Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile.

CARRIED A REVOLVER

Miller, according to a pleading to the jury, was carrying a revolver when he was shot. Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile. Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile.

HOLD-UP ASSERTED

Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile. Miller said that he had seen Lyons in the company of Murphy and his automobile.

ACTION FOLLOWS RUMOR FRANCE TO SEIZE RHENELAND

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons this evening that the government had decided to adopt a recommendation of the air ministry to provide 500 airplanes for home defense at a cost of 2,000,000 pounds.

REED SEEMS VICTORIOUS IN MISSOURI

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3.—Every factor that political experts have their opinions on indicates tonight that Senator Reed has been nominated by the Democrats of Missouri to be their standard bearer in November to succeed himself.

With 622 precincts missing out of the 2,842 in the State, Senator Reed was leading Breckenridge Long of St. Louis, former third Assistant Secretary of State in the Wilson administration, by 6079 votes. The vote in 2628 precincts stood:

Reed, 189,311; Long, 182,442.

R. R. Brewster of Kansas City, supported by the regular Republican organization, has won the Republican nomination for the United States Senate over William Sacks of St. Louis, who ran on a light wine and beer platform.

Of four women seeking Congressional nomination, Mrs. St. Clair Moss, president emerita of Christian College, Columbia, was the only victor. She defeated two male opponents for the Democratic nomination in the Eighth District. Mrs. Moss is an ardent prohibitionist and has been active in suffrage movements for several years. Mrs. Moss, the first woman in Missouri to be a Congressional nominee, took 1,000 votes.

BEATEN TO DEATH

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Robert Johnson, a carpenter employed in the Illinois Central shops, was beaten to death today by men said by the police to be striking shopmen. Johnson was waylaid in a vacant lot while on his way to work. Charles Krupnick, a repair man, was beaten into insensibility because he refused to join the strikers. Two men were arrested and charged with the slugging. They were said to be strikers.

PLAN NONCO-OPERATION

MANILA, Aug. 3.—Resistance to America by nonco-operation along the lines of the revolutionary movement led by Gandhi in India as a means of gaining Philippine independence is advocated in a published statement by Representative Vincente Lanes, of the Philippine Legislature. Lanes was a member of the Philippine independence mission which returned to Manila from the United States yesterday.

POSSE MEN ACCUSED

FRESNO, Aug. 3.—Charges of manslaughter growing out of the death of F. J. Wiens, Reedy banker, were returned by a Coroner's jury at Reedy tonight against C. W. Fridley and W. A. Seger, Fresno firemen, with a recommendation that they be prosecuted. The jury, which declared that Wiens came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted with felonious intent by Fridley, also charged J. T. Kennedy, county detective, who was in the man-hunting party with gross negligence of duty for not instructing Fridley and Seger in the proper use of their firearms.

GAG GROCERY CLERK

Gagging and binding I. S. Tulliam, clerk in a grocery store at 2729 Hooper avenue, two bandits last night looted the place of $20 in money and several boxes of cigars, according to a report made to University Police Station. Tulliam was tied to a cot in the back of his establishment for more than an hour before he was able to break loose.

ARRESTS IN ANAHEIM

Assorted to have been driving a car recently stolen from A. R. Carlson, 704 Lamar street, Albert Cox, Lawrence Anderson and Vern Perkins, all of Los Angeles, were arrested in Anaheim early today, according to a report made to Central Police Station. Arrangements were made to bring them to Los Angeles today.

NORTHCLIFFE WEAKER

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The condition of Viscount Northcliffe is less satisfactory, it was announced this evening. His weakness has increased during the last few days. It is supposed that his heart affection began in an insidious manner some months ago and was the result of a lowered resistance, largely caused through strain and overwork.

Harding Balked on Strike Peace Plans New Move

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Balked in his efforts toward settlement of the coal strike and the railroad strike and facing the same crisis which presented itself to President Roosevelt in 1902, President Harding is preparing actively to put into force and effect as a last resort, the Roosevelt program for enforced action in the mines and probably the railroads.

KLANSMEN IN OREGON INDICTED

MEMPHIS (Or.) Aug. 3.—(By A. P. Night Wire.)—Well-known Jackson county men, all reported to be members of the Ku Klux Klan, and sixteen "John Does" were indicted today by the special grand jury that has been investigating the activities of the Klan in Southern Oregon, and which reported this afternoon to Circuit Judge Calkins.

The indictments charge participation in hangings staged by night riders last spring, none of which was fatal.

THOSE INDICTED

Those indicted are: Jesse F. Hillman, Medford automobile dealer and former Chief of Police; Dr. Joseph P. Bray, Medford chiropractor and former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Howard A. Hill, manager and part owner of the Hill & Hill orchards just south of Medford; Bert L. Moss, janitor at the Jackson county Courthouse, formerly at the Jackson County Jail; J. Alexander Norris, janitor at the Jacksonville public school; Thomas E. Goodie, Jackson garage owner.

The indictments were returned this afternoon, and before 6 o'clock Sheriff Terrill had placed all of the men under arrest and bonds of $2000 each were posted.

All of the men will be arraigned before Judge Calkins in Jacksonville tomorrow.

PARTIAL INVESTIGATION

In a report submitted to Judge Calkins, the jury explains that the investigation which resulted in the indictments, was only partial and that members of the jury have reason to believe that further evidence justifying additional indictments will be forthcoming.

For this reason, the jury plans to resume the investigation of the night riders' activities in Jackson county when the jury convenes in regular session on October 14 or 15.

It was stated that it would be feasible for the government to make possible operation of the railroad that failed to carry out the terms of its mail contract, or to operate its lines in interstate commerce by appealing to the Federal courts for receivers.

Report to the receivership plan would not be made, it was said, unless such action became absolutely necessary to provide parts of the country with fuel and other necessities.

Attorney-General Daugherty said there were no developments in connection with the investigation of the department that a conspiracy existed between the managers of the railway shopmen's strike and of the coal miners' strike. He declined to comment further on the subject, but it was intimated that the department was pursuing a course of "watchful waiting."

SWAN ISLANDS CLAIMED

Honduras Passes Resolution Asking United States to Negotiate Concerning Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The government of Honduras will in the near future formally request the United States to enter into negotiations with a view to determining definitely the nationality of the Swan Islands, located in the Caribbean Sea, about thirty miles north of Cape Gracias a Dios. The former was the property of the British, both Spanish and English, and have a romantic history. Several expeditions have been organized in times past to search for hidden treasures in the islands.

Honduras claims the Swan Islands as part of her national territory and contends there can be no doubt as to her title to them. The United States likewise claims title by right of discovery and continuous occupation.

The islands, while small, occupy a strong strategic position, commanding the coasts of Yucatan in southern Mexico, Guatemala, British Honduras and Honduras. They could be made use of as a fuel station for the fleet, or as a base for some time past the United Fruit Company has maintained a high power radio station on one of the islands.

Last spring Honduras determined to send an expedition to the islands to arrange for their administration as part of Honduran territory. The American charge d'affaires promptly presented a note asking why Honduras proposed to take this step. The reply was that the islands were Honduran territory. Honduras did not carry out its intention, postponing the departure of the expedition until August, when the American charge d'affaires again entered protest and suggested that the matter be taken up by direct negotiation with the United States. The Honduran congress recently passed a resolution directing that negotiations be begun and a report made at the next regular session.

Mellon Says British Debt Cancellation Note Will Not Change America's Attitude

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Cancellation of inter-allied indebtedness as suggested by Great Britain in a recent note to European nations, has no place in the policy of the United States toward war-time advances, treasury officials declared today.

In the view of Secretary Mellon, as explained at the Treasury, the United States has all to lose and nothing to gain through an all-around cancellation of inter-allied war debt and such a suggestion has never been considered by this government.

The British note, according to Mr. Mellon, in no way changes the attitude of the United States toward the expected liquidation of foreign indebtedness and will not alter its intention of continuing negotiations for funding the foreign obligation.

Latest figures obtained at the Treasury Department show that the obligations of the various foreign governments to the United States, including interest accrued and unpaid, is close to $17,000,000,000. Of this amount Great Britain owes $4,744,000,000.

The loans of Great Britain to her Allies during the war totaled $17,465,498,000. This does not include $699,540,000 loaned by the British government to the British Dominions and colonies. The total loans of the United States under the Liberty Loan acts, not including unpaid interest, were $9,424,000,000, so that the original amount of the loans of the British were about equal to those of the United States.

Senator McCumber, North Dakota, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, in his second rank among the Republican members of the influential Foreign Relations committee, reflected the over-

EXTRAVAGANCE IS GOVERNOR'S
Figures Prove Stephens is Directly Responsible
Bureau's Cost Quadrupled Under His Direction
Statute Shows Huge Outlay Was With His Approval

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—When the demands of the public for greater economy in the conduct of State business could no longer be ignored, the present State Administration, in 1919, sponsored the consolidation of various boards and commissions into a single department, to be known as the Department of Agriculture, and in 1921 added two other agencies to this department.

In order to assure the public that the Governor was standing squarely behind the alleged program of economy, and in order to ensure the rigid enforcement of this program, the act creating the Department of Agriculture provided that the director who is primarily responsible for the management of this department should be the Governor's personal representative.

IMPORTANT ECONOMIES
The economies effected are of supreme importance to all those interested in the affairs of State, as well as to the farmer who is primarily affected by the functions performed, and who in the last analysis pays the bill.

In 1917 the cost of operating all the departments included in the present Department of Agriculture (with the exception of the Cattle Protection Board, which was not then created) amounted to $1,172,561.13, expended in the following manner:

Commissioner of Agriculture	$ 50,000.00
Director of Forestry	25,000.00
Director of Game and Fish	25,000.00
Director of Plant Industry	25,000.00
Director of Soil Conservation	25,000.00
Director of Veterinary Medicine	25,000.00
Director of Wildlife	25,000.00
Director of Zoology	25,000.00
Director of Entomology	25,000.00
Director of Botany	25,000.00
Director of Horticulture	25,000.00
Director of Forestry	25,000.00
Director of Game and Fish	25,000.00
Director of Plant Industry	25,000.00
Director of Soil Conservation	25,000.00
Director of Veterinary Medicine	25,000.00
Director of Wildlife	25,000.00
Director of Zoology	25,000.00
Director of Entomology	25,000.00
Director of Botany	25,000.00
Director of Horticulture	25,000.00
Total	$1,172,561.13

COST QUADRUPLED
"Subject to the approval of the 1921-22 was $724,554.45 for the Governor," the expenditures in the Department of Agriculture. In other words, after the consolidation, essentially for the purpose of effecting economy, the cost is more than four times as great.

In 1914-1917 the number of employees found necessary to operate these various agencies totaled sixty-nine. "With the approval of the Governor" this number was increased to 247. The State now pays $1291 a month rent for quarters located to house them. In 1918 the rent was $500 a month.

For the use of these 247 employees the State provides thirty-nine passenger automobiles and one truck. In addition to these machines, owned and operated by the State, the State pays for the maintenance of 166 privately owned cars at the rate of $8 and 10 cents a mile. The cost of operating these 166 privately-owned cars averages about $25,000 a month, not including the other traveling expenses of the employees using them. In 1917 there were six State machines provided for the use of employees, and the salary of private machines was practically unknown.

LARGE SALARY ROLL
Under the present system of State bookkeeping, and the manner in which funds are appropriated for the use of this department, it is impossible to tell just what portion of the $724,554.45 was expended for salaries. However, the monthly salary roll in June was approximately $32,750, which would amount to $441,000 a year.

These employees must not be confused with the farm advisers and home demonstrators advised by the University of California College at Davis Farm.

CHICAGO SELECTED AS NEXT MEETING PLACE
AMERICAN HOME ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION DISCUSS THEORIES OF LIVING

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
CORVALLIS (Or.) Aug. 3.—Chicago is to be the 1923 meeting place of the American Home Economics Association, according to a decision here by the council today. Ten invitations were received from different cities; extension worker has the homes of the county or State for her laboratory to discover what theories were out and what theories the home-makers wish to have worked out," declared Ethel Dodson, clothing specialist from the University of California, in addressing the textile section of the convention today.

"Environment has little to do with the problems of the home-maker, for women pass through three stages, the bride, the mother and the matron who has completed the rearing of the family," continued Mr. Dodson.

STRIKER SENTENCED FOR ATTACK ON MAN
IDENTIFIED BY VICTIM WHO HAD NEVER WORKED FOR ANY RAILROAD

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—Anton Vierra, striking railroad shopman, was sentenced by acting Police Judge Silas Orr today to serve sixty days in the County Jail, following his conviction yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Vierra was alleged to have been one of a gang of men who attacked and beat B. Mackey, a carpenter. Vierra was the only man identified by Mackey, who declared the men attacked him because they thought he was going to work in the Southern Pacific shops. Mackey carried a lunch box at the time. He showed he never had been employed by a railroad.

Vierra filed notice of an appeal from his conviction.

HUNTER RUNS FOR SHERIFF
Mountain Lion and Bear Total Offered as Platform

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Aug. 3.—Ramsey Patterson has announced himself a candidate for Democratic nomination as Sheriff, this on his record as a mountain lion tracker and killer. "I have killed 274 lions and seven bears and I shall, if elected, hunt criminals in the same manner and, I hope, with the same success." Just to show that his hand has not lost its skill, he has just arrived in Prescott with the carcasses of two lions, killed in the Cottonwood section. One of the animals measured ten feet three inches from tip to tip.

Also unique in the way of campaigning is the action of George Pruitt, who wants to be Sheriff of Maricopa county. He has advertised that, from his own Glendale ranch, he will supply watermelons to all who may come to a meeting to be held in a Phoenix recreation park.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL KIDNAPED
Las Vegas Mob Applies Tar and Excelsior to Trainmaster

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
LAS VEGAS (Nev.) Aug. 3.—G. A. Zentmyer, Union Pacific trainmaster here, was seized on the main street late today, taken in an automobile several miles into the desert by a crowd of unknown men, where a coat of tar and excelsior was applied to his body.

This is the second case of violence here since the beginning of the strike of the employes of the Union Pacific. The first occurred an hour previous to the attack on Zentmyer, when four women attacked the wife of E. W. Andrews, roundhouse foreman, while she was carrying dinner to her husband, who was working within the enclosed Union Pacific shops. The women, whose names are unknown, beat Mrs. Andrews severely.

No warrants have been issued for either the men or women, but it is unofficially stated this action will be taken tomorrow.

ALVORD TO SUCCEED KERR AT CAPITAL
PROMINENT ARMY MAN WILL BE NAMED ASSISTANT TO ADJUTANT-GENERAL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Secretary of War has recommended Col. Benjamin Alvord, A.G.D., for appointment as assistant to the Adjutant-General, with the rank of brigadier-general to succeed Brig. Gen. James T. Kerr, A.G.D., who will retire after forty years' service on Aug. 15, 1923.

Col. Alvord is at present on duty in the office of the Adjutant-General, having been recently transferred to this city from the headquarters of the Ninth Corps Area at the Hotel de San Francisco.

During the World War Col. Alvord held the grade of brigadier-general and served as the first adjutant-general of the A.E.F. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services, the citation for which follows:

"As adjutant-general of the American expeditionary forces during the beginning of its organization, his long experience, good judgment and ability in the performance of his duties were of great value in the establishment of the innumerable activities of the adjutant-general's department of the American expeditionary forces."

During the Philippine insurrection Col. Alvord served as a regimental adjutant and adjutant-general of a division in the field, being nominated for major by brevet for conspicuous gallantry in action.

Among other important assignments, Col. Alvord served as a regimental adjutant and adjutant-general at the Infantry and Cavalry school in 1894; instructor at the United States Military Academy in 1897; adjutant of the Department of Northern Luzon in 1901; on the General Staff in 1903; chief of staff at the Vera Cruz expedition in 1914, and adjutant-general of the Western Department in 1917.

Col. Alvord was born in Washington, D. C., and appointed to the United States Military Academy from the District of Columbia. He graduated from the Military Academy in 1887, from the Infantry and Cavalry school in 1887 and was transferred from the Infantry to the adjutant-general's department in 1907.

GLOBE IS FLOODED BY STORM WATERS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
GLOBE, Aug. 3.—During the past week this district has experienced storms that have flooded much of the city, with large streams of water draining from the side canyons out upon the main thoroughfares. Agnes McMichael, aged 9 years, was caught in the current of McCormick Wash, lost her footing and was carried two blocks until rescued by Ray Carpenter as she was approaching a concrete incline leading to an underground mine, which carries flood waters beneath the postoffice building.

OVERCOME BY FUMES
NOGALLES (Ariz.) Aug. 3.—Two laborers at Quivira met a grim approach to death recently when they were overcome by bisulphide of carbon vapor in a chamber where garbanzos had been under fumigation. The men were rescued with difficulty and are in a hospital.

TARIFF DEBATE NOT CURTAILED
Senators Unable to Agree on Date for Voting
Motives of Members Under Investigation
Interests of Papers Also in Question

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Upsetting plans of Republican and Democratic leaders for a final vote on the administration tariff bill on August 17, Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, gave notice today in the Senate that there would be no unanimous consent agreement for a final vote, at least until all important committee amendments to the measure had been discussed and acted upon.

The Wisconsin Senator said he was anxious to limit debate and proposed an arrangement under which, beginning today, discussion would have been confined exclusively to the tariff with each Senator limited to a ten-minute talk on amendments on the bill after August 11.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, objected to this, however, and the effort to come to an understanding in the open Senate and subsequently private negotiations looking to at least a curtailment of discussion were reopened and some Republicans have taken the opinion that these might lead to results. Certain Democratic Senators, however, were represented as objecting to limitation of debate until after votes on the sections dealing with duties on sugars and silk.

ASKS INVESTIGATIONS
Senator Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the Republican agricultural tariff bloc, introduced his resolution directing a special committee of five Senators to inquire into and report to the Senate on:

"The financial interests of Senators in the wool and sheep industries. The financial interests of Frank A. Munsey in European industries which compete with American industries; the amount and percentage of his income derived from advertisements placed in his newspapers by the importing department stores which have financed a campaign of defamation against the pending tariff bill and which will profit by the defeat of the bill."

"The number of Senators owning or controlling or financially interested in newspapers, the amount of revenue obtained by these newspapers from their sporting department stores, which will benefit financially by the defeat of the pending tariff bill."

"The financial interests of all members of the Senate, or their immediate relatives in any American industry or in any property in any community in the United States which may be affected directly or indirectly either by the passage or defeat of any proposed schedule in the pending tariff bill."

The preamble of the resolution recited that charges had been made by the New York Herald, owned by Mr. Munsey, "that members of the Senate, engaged in the sheep industry, had thereby been financially interested in the wool schedule of the tariff bill."

MAKE EARLY REPORT
It referred also to the resolution offered last Saturday by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, proposing an investigation of the financial interest, if any, of all Senators in tariff schedules.

Senator Gooding's resolution was referred to the Committee on Contingent Expenses, which, on motion of Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, was directed to report on it "immediately." Members of the committee said a report would be made tomorrow, but indicated that the resolution would be modified.

Senator Harrison and Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, contended that the Gooding resolution seemed to propose an investigation of no publications other than the Munsey newspapers and suggested that the inquiry be extended to all Republican dailies attacking the tariff. Mr. Gooding replied that it was intended to apply to all newspapers.

POPE'S WELFARE WORK PLEDGED BY KNIGHTS
PONTIFF ADVISED THEY WILL COMPLETE COMMISSION GIVEN THEM

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Aug. 3.—Pledging his Holiness, Pope Pius XI, that they would continue to completion the $1,000,000 American welfare work in Rome which they undertook at the request of Pope Benedict XIV, the supreme international convention of the Knights of Columbus today sent the following cable to Cardinal Gaspari, papal secretary of State:

"The Knights of Columbus have received with profound gratitude the special blessing of our Holy father. In supreme convention assembled we unanimously resolve that the work which it has been the pleasure of the supreme pontiff to commission us to do, will be done. We renew again our pledge of filial devotion and pray for the supreme pontiff a happy and glorious reign as head of the church which is the world's chief bulwark against the forces of moral and social destruction."

BUSINESS FAILURES SHOWN ON DECREASE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Business failures for July totaled 1263, a decrease of 5.5 per cent from the June figure and 41 per cent from those of the peak month of January, 1922. Bradstreet's reported here today.

Although the number of failures was 5.1 per cent above that for July, 1921, the total amount for liabilities—$49,148,148—was 40 per cent below the total for July last year.

Total liabilities for the seven months of 1922 were $428,517,222, a decrease of 4.3 per cent from the 1921 figure for the similar period. The number of failures was 14,044 against 19,544 for the corresponding months last year.

SCHOONER LOST IN SOUTH SEA
The John A. Campbell and Cargo Destroyed By Fire

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The wooden sailing schooner John A. Campbell of 164 tons registry, was totally destroyed by fire at Tarawa, in the South Sea Islands, after it had been loaded with copra destined for San Francisco, according to advices received today by the marine department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. The schooner, which was owned by Burns, Phillips & Co., of San Francisco, was built at Point Blakely, Mass., in 1891.

Famed Sport of Long Beach Now Broadway Rage

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The farm has borrowed many things from Broadway, including jazz, but Broadway has borrowed many items from the farm, including barnyard golf.

Horseback pitching was first introduced to the Rialto by a storage warehouse which wished to provide some pastime other than smoking for its van crews between trips. The idea spread so rapidly that theatrical potentes today pronounced it the greatest comeback since "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

And while Broadway pitches a mean horseshoe and even contemplates entering the grand national tournament at Des Moines next month, it is having difficulty in finding enough horses in this motor-mad town to supply ammunition.

TO HOLD PRICE HEARING

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Acting Chairman McNary of the Senate Manufacturers' Committee to begin hearings next Monday in the gasoline and oil price investigation, ordered recently by the Senate. After hearing oil producers further hearings probably will be deferred pending receipt of questionnaires sent by the committee to producers and refiners.

Cherubs Perk Up—Shake off Utes' Jinx and Win

ANGELS BREAK BEES' HOODOO

Locals Finally Show Utes Can Be Beaten

Dumovich and Gould Are Opposing Heavers

Lindimore Saves the Day in Eighth Canto

BY ED O'MALLEY

What ho—ye fans—the baseball millennium has arrived. The Angels have discovered the philosopher's stone, rubbing it on the Morone yesterday afternoon 3 to 1. Now that the miracle has occurred, it behooves our Angelic tribe to bust into the Bees from now on and show 'em that they are not unconquerable.

The whole proceeding of yesterday's victory was compassed by a subtle move of Acting Manager Art Griggs. Just before the game, he convened the Cherubs, administered a mental amulet and when the disastrous Bees were thrown off the celestial stomachs, as it were, they immediately withdrew the visitors, sting and made them harmless.

BOTTEN HEAVES

Nick Dumovich was on the hill for Griggs' side. He heaved a fair article of ball, but even at that had to rub several horseshoes before victory settled on his efforts. Gould protected for the Morone. He hurt his own chances of success by making several rotten throws at critical moments.

The game was peculiar from the fact that potential success veered one way and then another all through the clash. The best way to expound this statement is to come to the various phases of the chances by describing the important innings.

The Angels started in the first canto to reach the plate. McCabe walked. McAuley bunted to Gould who threw wild to Strand and before the Bees first mackerel had reached third, McCabe had reached third. Deal trundled a hot one at Strand who threw to Siglin forcing McAuley, McCabe scoring on the play. Griggs fanned and Twombly forced Deal at second. Vitt to Siglin.

SCORE ANOTHER

In the fourth, the Cherubs came back with one more as follows: Griggs hit a very solid one to Vitt who pegged a little wild to Strand, pulling that first baser of the bag. Twombly shot a scorcher to Vitt who fumbled but recovered.

RECOGNITION

It's a word that has a large variety of definitions. In insurance parlance it indicates that an article has a certain value, that it comes up to well defined standards of quality. As applied to the insurance people to bumpers it means a bumper that will afford 100% protection to the car on which it is installed. All automobile bumpers are not recognized. Our Stewart Bumpers are, and have class "A" rating. Their installation on your car means a reduction of 10% to 15% in collision insurance premiums. Better still, by installing our bumpers now you can get a refund of a part of the insurance you have already paid. Come in and let us show you the Stewart Advantage.

WHISKAWAY IS SOLD TO CLARK

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SARASOTA (N. Y.) Aug. 3.—W. A. Clark of the Montana mining family of that name has become the owner of Whiskaway, the admitted 3-year-old champion of the year. It was learned here today that Clark had closed the deal with Harry Payne Whitney and had made payment of $110,000, the highest price paid for a thoroughbred in a number of years.

Whiskaway is the horse which twice this season lowered the colors of the supposedly unbeatable Morvich, winner of the Kentucky derby.

The ball quickly and shot it to Strand in time. Carroll fouled to Vitt who made no daring catch. Lindimore busted a he-single to center scoring Griggs. Daly was easy prey, Siglin to Strand.

SOME FEEL

Ring—down went Anderson's throw to Strand at a mile a minute. The ball, however, went far over Strand's head and coursed to the end of the bleachers in right field.

Willitt was playing toward center and really did not see the punt heaved. When his attention was called to it, he had to compass a lot of territory for the recovery.

LOOK BLUE

Things began to look pretty blue for the Angels in the first of the seventh inning when Duffy Lewis started off with a ripping two-bagger that rattled the boards in the left field fence. Willitt blazed an upward leap and bounced out of the Skeeter's glove, Lewis was safely home.

SCORE ANOTHER

In the fourth, the Cherubs came back with one more as follows: Griggs hit a very solid one to Vitt who pegged a little wild to Strand, pulling that first baser of the bag. Twombly shot a scorcher to Vitt who fumbled but recovered.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 3.—Another close one for the Vernon Tigers—Bill Eslick's tribe walked away with a pretty-fought 3-to-1 game as one could wish to see. They did it before a big week-day crowd that enjoyed everything but the result.

It was Vern, Gregg against Bill James. Gregg, like Gardner, the day before, pitched enough ball to win the majority of his games, but James was just a little bit better.

Once again the home boys gave the fans a thrill in the ninth, but just as on Wednesday, their efforts couldn't be sustained long enough.

Crane cracked a hot one through short that French pluckily knocked down, and French then kicked Schorr's boulder, putting two on. But there were two away, and Murphy gobbled up Hood's foul fly for the third out.

Strange as this may sound, it was the former king of the southpaws, connected in the pinch off the French in both cases started the trouble.

Crane made a nice stop of his boulder in the seventh, but the throw was a bit high, and Stump couldn't handle it. Dan Murphy sacrificed him along. Crane made a wonderful play on James to rob him of the hit. French taking third. Gregg then faced Chadbourne. The Tiger centerfielder let one get the inside corner, then swung and missed on the same kind of a pitch, but the third inside ball was different. He rammed it to right for two bases, scoring French.

Crane cracked a hot one through short that French pluckily knocked down, and French then kicked Schorr's boulder, putting two on. But there were two away, and Murphy gobbled up Hood's foul fly for the third out.

Strange as this may sound, it was the former king of the southpaws, connected in the pinch off the French in both cases started the trouble.

Crane made a nice stop of his boulder in the seventh, but the throw was a bit high, and Stump couldn't handle it. Dan Murphy sacrificed him along. Crane made a wonderful play on James to rob him of the hit. French taking third. Gregg then faced Chadbourne. The Tiger centerfielder let one get the inside corner, then swung and missed on the same kind of a pitch, but the third inside ball was different. He rammed it to right for two bases, scoring French.

It was Vern, Gregg against Bill James. Gregg, like Gardner, the day before, pitched enough ball to win the majority of his games, but James was just a little bit better.

Once again the home boys gave the fans a thrill in the ninth, but just as on Wednesday, their efforts couldn't be sustained long enough.

HONOLULU TO GREET GUESTS

Civic Bodies Preparing for Los Angeles Delegation

Volcano Eruption Foreseen in Present Activity

Islands Looking Forward to New Steamship Line

(BY CABLE-RECEIVED DISPATCH.)
HONOLULU, Aug. 3.—Special facilities for seeing the volcano of Kilauea will be afforded the Chamber of Commerce excursion party from Los Angeles, which will come in September to inaugurate the Los Angeles-Hawaii steamship service.

These plans are now being arranged by the Hill Board of Trade, the commercial body which acts for the island of Hawaii. The Hawaii Publicity Committee, a tourist and publicity committee, which functions especially for the island of Hawaii, and the Hawaii Tourist Bureau, which acts for the entire territory.

VOLCANO IS ACTIVE
The volcano, after some weeks of quiescence, has again entered one of its prolonged phases of activity and is expected to be going "full blast" when the Los Angeles excursion is here. Some weeks ago the lava flow drained out of the immense pit and it was black, dead and quiet, but recently lava has started pouring from a point up the side of the crater and the pit is now slowly rising toward the top, with every indication that it will go brim-full. Indeed, the Los Angeles visitors may have the unusual opportunity of seeing an eruption that actually overflows and spreads out over the lava fields that surround the crater. This is the first time since the eruption began, the spread of lava is slow and may easily be foreseen.

Automobile and railroad trips to some of the points of scenic beauty, a "Hawaiian" or native feast, with native singing and dancing, and entertainment by the various civic bodies are being planned for the visitors.

FIRST SHIP IN SEPTEMBER
The latest word received here is that the first steamer of the new service will sail from Los Angeles Harbor September 3.

The island of Hawaii is hoping to ship fresh fruit, particularly bananas, by the Los Angeles liner. It is understood here that each will have a considerable refrigerated space.

MINER IS KILLED BY RUNAWAY TRAIN

(RECEIVED DISPATCH.)
MIAMI (Ariz.) Aug. 3.—Daniel Ziboni, an Italian miner, was killed on the 600 level of the Inspiration mine when a runaway train snapped off a terminal post, behind which he and Alex Melli were standing in the incline shaft. Melli saved his life by jumping in one of the cars. He was somewhat bruised when the train smashed into the bottom of the shaft. Ziboni had a single wound, a fracture of the skull. A coroner's jury decided that the slither that gave way had caused the death.

In the same mine, Guy Courtney, a motorman on haulage level, reached out from the side of the motor and thereby lost his left leg when it came in contact with the timbers of an ore trolley.

FIRE HORSE, JOB LOST, ENDS LIFE

Veteran's Heart Broken by Garbage Assignment, Say Firemen Friends

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Ten years' honorable service as a fire horse rewarded with a job hauling a garbage wagon broke the heart of old Jack Gallup. He committed suicide today in front of a fire house and his firemen friends say he did it deliberately.

Old Jack for years was one of those plump, sleek bays who whirled a steamer with a big fire in Washington, and many little ones too. But the motor finally got old Jack and his pals and they went the way of thousands of others in an age of progress.

A week ago there was some sobbing down and some tears brushed away among the firemen in Congress Heights when Jack and his mates were led away. Today Jack turned up with one of them on an ill-smelling filthy garbage wagon in old Georgetown. The day was hot and the job was nasty and the disgrace was worst of all. Nobody knows what Jack might have said in horse language to his mate, but anyway he took the bit in his teeth and bolted, dragging his team-mate with him and heading for the nearest engine house. Jack knew where it was too, although he never had worked in that part of the city before. He galloped full tilt right into the brick wall head-on and crumpled down in a heap. The shocked and grief-stricken firemen, recognizing the old horse by the brand marks on his hoofs, gave him the coup de grace to end his struggles.

Nobody could convince them that Jack Gallup didn't deliberately take his life rather than end it hauling a garbage wagon.

PRIORITY COAL LIST TO BE ISSUED SOON

ADMINISTRATION TO AID DISTRIBUTION UNDER NEW PROGRAM
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—New priority orders for the transportation of fuel will be issued immediately by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Federal Fuel Distributor Spencer announced tonight, with the purpose of facilitating the distribution of coal under the administration's emergency program.

"The district committee representing the Federal organization in the producing coal fields will be functioning by Monday," Mr. Spencer said. Today's discussions by the committee, he declared, "were confined to routine matters and no important conclusions were reached."

Efforts to bring government influence to bear upon coal mine operators who have been unwilling to attend the central competitive wage scale joint conference with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, which has been called for Monday at Cleveland, with support of some operators, were understood to have been the purpose of the visit here of Samuel Glasgow, general attorney for the union. Mr. Glasgow held a prolonged interview today with President Harding, being accompanied to the White House by Secretary Hoover. Both refused to discuss the purpose of their visit.

DISORDERS IN ITALY REPORTED

Fascisti and Communists Attack Each Other; Two Killed

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
ROME, Aug. 3.—Sporadic disorders between Fascisti and Communists, some of them fairly serious in character, were reported today from various parts of Italy.

Communist railway men at Tivoli fired upon a group of carabinieri who responded in kind, killing one of their attackers and wounding several others. Seventeen Communists were arrested and the others fled.

Fascisti occupied the Chamber of Labor Building in Florence, demolished its contents, removed important documents and burned a pile of propaganda pamphlets. They also invaded the printing office of the newspaper there, seized documents and destroyed all the type.

At Vienna the Fascisti also occupied the Chamber of Labor Building and hoisted the national flag over it. Fascisti forced their way into the Municipal Building at Leghorn and hoisted their flag.

Signor Capodonato, son of Gen. Capodonato, who distinguished himself during the war, was shot and killed by an unknown assassin.

Fifty bombs and 1000 cartridges were found in an orchard at Milan. The owner of the orchard, a notorious anarchist, was arrested.

LEGLESS HUSBANDS
SUE FOR DIVORCES
WIFE WHO MARRIED MAN BECAUSE OF INTIMITY LEAVES HIM
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Two legless husbands figured today in the Brooklyn divorce news, each suing his wife. Leonard Greenbaum, an ex-convict, lost his legs in a navy accident ten years ago. In 1911 he married Hazel E. Cook, who says she is a "Hoosier Methodist, born in Montana," when she was 17 years old and he was 24. She married him because of his intimacy and for six years lived with him in Brooklyn and bore him six children.

In 1919 she sued for divorce, but returned to live with him before a decree was granted. She describes Greenbaum as "fanatically jealous and jealously cruel." Then, in 1921 his younger brother, Joe Greenbaum, came from up state, got married, she believing, she says, she actually had been divorced from Leonard.

CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF SALE OF ARMY GOODS TO CIVILIANS
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
EL PASO, Aug. 3.—Capt. Clifford E. Black was formally charged with embezzlement in the Federal court here today after he had admitted to Army officers, they allege, that he had disposed of government supplies to citizens of El Paso. Army officers said Black broke down as they were talking him from his cell and pleading for mercy for the sake of his wife and children, signed a statement implicating a half dozen El Paso citizens as having purchased the stolen goods from him. He dictated his confession to a stenographer, three hours being consumed in writing down the details of the thefts and sale of goods, covering a period of several months and amounting to several thousand dollars in value. The goods principally were steam radiators, plumbing supplies and the like.

CHARGE BOYS WITH MURDER

Fresno Officers Hold Youths for Trial

Disregard Verdict Returned by Coroner's Jury

Desire to Put Case Up to Court, It is Said

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
FRESNO, Aug. 3.—Chester Boyd and Lloyd Clark were charged with murder in connection with the death of Police Sergeant James M. Hardenbrook in a complaint issued this morning by Dist. Atty. B. W. Gerhart, and sworn to by Police Inspector M. R. Lihkoua.

The complaint was filed, Linkous said, to put the fatal shooting up to the coroner, in spite of the verdict of a coroner's jury yesterday morning which exonerated Boyd and Clark and placed the responsibility for the murder of Hardenbrook on Frank Stone.

Clark and Boyd will be arraigned in Police Court for a preliminary hearing either late today or tomorrow morning, it was learned. Stone is still at large.

The complaint was issued to prevent the execution of prior claims on Boyd and Clark, the police said, which might be presented by Stockton or Fresno school authorities. The preliminary hearing will determine whether Boyd and Clark can be held for the murder of Hardenbrook, which both declared was committed by Stone.

Issuance of the complaint followed the losing of tracks believed to be Stone's, which were traced to Kings River bottoms twenty-eight miles north of Fresno yesterday by a posse led by Chief Truxax.

Posting a guard at the Kings River bridge at Piedra and at advantageous points about the Kings River bottoms, Truxax and his volunteers today are waiting developments, fairly sure in their belief that Stone after robbing a ranch-house of food four miles from the bottoms, lost himself in the swamp wilds.

With all possible means of escape from the river bottoms guarded, Truxax said that once Stone runs out of food he will be forced out after more.

WHITTIER PICNIC AT PASADENA PARK

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

WHITTIER, Aug. 3.—The annual community picnic is to be held at Brookside Park, Pasadena, August 21, according to the plans given out today by the entertainment committee of the Whittier Chamber of Commerce.

Gowdy Sutherland is the chairman of the picnic committee and will be assisted by subcommittees on music, food, transportation, entertainment and other necessary details. One thousand Whittier residents are expected to attend. Last year the community picnic was held in the Orange County Park, more than 400 persons attending.

SEEN THINGS AT REDLANDS

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

REDLANDS, Aug. 3.—What was the ball of fire that Redlands people saw falling over the valley last night?

Several motorists who were driving in the valley late in the evening saw the sight which they claim was one of the most awe-inspiring they have ever seen.

Mrs. M. Van der Linder, of Brookside avenue in this city, was one of those who saw it. "It was a huge red ball of fire, apparently," she said, "and had a stream of flame behind it. It fell at great speed and it seemed to us to be north of Pasadena and to have fallen in the mountains."

University scientists here say that in all probability it was a meteor that buried itself in the mountains.

ALHAMBRA'S EVEN TENOR GIVEN JOLT

Supposed Actor in Films Runs Foul of Police and Excitement Begins

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ALHAMBRA, Aug. 3.—The invasion of an Alhambra into this city has left its imprint upon Chief of Police Elliott, the police department, City Jail, and even the city itself.

C. E. Haisell, giving 411 South Hoover street, Los Angeles, as his address, and posing as a motion-picture actor, is responsible for a number of people disgracing from the even tenor of their respective ways.

Haisell, according to police reports, was arrested on Ocean-to-Ocean highway, near here, after he had run his high-powered motor car into a ditch. He strenuously resisted arrest, even going so far as to swing at Chief of Police Elliott's jaw before he was handcuffed and led away to a cell, that officer says.

An hour and a half was given Haisell in which to think up an excuse or he would be hauled before Judge Farrell of Alhambra, who admitted him to $100 bail. Haisell had in his possession at the time, it is said, $100 in cash and a check for $100, all of which he put up as security for his appearance tomorrow morning.

Following Haisell's departure from the city, it was discovered that a food was occurring at the jail. Upon investigation, officers found that the cell in which Haisell had been locked was literally wrecked, someone having destroyed every article of furniture in the room and torn out all the plumbing fixtures.

Two other men were in the car with Haisell, but were released. They declared they were from Texas, and called attention to their motion-picture cowboy attire to substantiate their statements.

OFFER FOR LIBRARY STIRS UP PROTEST

SANTA MONICA CITIZENS CLAIM CITY HAS NO RIGHT TO SELL

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 3.—Efforts of a Los Angeles realty man to purchase from the city of Santa Monica the land on which the public library is now located, roused a storm of protest at the City Council today when R. R. Tanner, pioneer attorney, charged the city did not have the authority to sell the property ever if it desired to do so.

Mr. Tanner called attention to the fact that the land was secured through contributions, made by eighty-three citizens, of sums ranging from $300 to $500 each. It was on the condition, Mr. Tanner said, that the city first secure the land that Andrew Carnegie gave the $12,000 to construct the building.

The matter is still being considered by the city, with the Council awaiting a report from City Attorney Webber.

WARNING ISSUED ON GASOLINE BURGLAR

AGED MAN OPERATING NEAR LONG BEACH EMPTIES AUTOMOBILE TANKS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

LONG BEACH, Aug. 3.—Police today issued a warning against a gasoline thief who is reported to have emptied the tanks of at least a dozen cars in Long Beach during the past two weeks. He is about 50 years old and operates with a five-gallon can and a long Sutter tube to which he uses the gas out of the tanks into his can.

M. M. Link of 3609 Fourth avenue is the latest victim.

PROMINENT RESIDENT DIES AT SANTA ANA

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SANTA ANA, Aug. 3.—F. E. Bangs, a resident of Santa Ana for more than twenty years, died at his home, 701 Orange avenue, this morning. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Augusta Bangs, a daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Stearns, and a son, Edward C. Bangs.

Mr. Bangs came to Santa Ana in 1901. He graduated from Yale University in 1876, and for twenty years was principal of five schools in the Wooster district at New Haven, Ct.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Smith and Tutthill chapel, with the Rev. Perry Schrock officiating.

FIGHTING FIREMEN INJURED

Bakersfield Blaze Causes Large Property Loss and Threatens Part of City

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 3.—Two firemen were painfully injured, the Whittaker building gutted, forty-four automobiles totally destroyed and the whole of the Baker-street business district north of the Southern Pacific railroad tracks, seriously threatened for two hours early today in the largest fire in the downtown area of East Bakersfield, since the great fire of the early nineties which laid most of the east side in ashes.

Starting in the Baker-street garage, owned by Nelson & Daugherty, shortly after 2 a.m. today, the fire spread rapidly, burning over the Kern furniture store in the same building and spread to the home of Charles Whittaker, the owner, next door at 1013 Baker street, causing damage roughly estimated at $25,000.

The Whittaker home was slightly damaged, but prompt action by the fire department prevented the destruction of the building there by checking the spread of the blaze to the heart of the business district.

The injured firemen are: Capt. Joseph Shannon, in command of fire company No. 1, Humboldt-street station, severely burned and lacerations caused by a fall into a repair pit of the garage; Walter Abbott, hoseman, company No. 2, burns about the head and shoulders.

Referee Ruling in Ranch Land Suit Affirmed

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

EL CENTRO, Aug. 3.—For the second time, Judge Cole of the Imperial county Superior Court has affirmed referee findings for the defendants in a suit brought by the plaintiffs in the ranching operations on money lent by them to establish the business.

Lynch and Finck, defendants, one of the largest farming firms in Lower California.

The suit involves approximately $100,000 and has covered four years of litigation, including the appointment of a receiver for the ranching property, two hearings before referees and two affirmations of the Superior Court.

Plaintiffs in the suit brought action for a share of profits in the ranching operations on money lent by them to establish the business.

PROTEST REMOVAL OF FORT

San Diego Business Men Ask Government to Permit Troops to Remain

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 3.—Recent rumors here to the effect that Fort Rosecrans would be abandoned as part of the Federal government's retrenchment policy, were given confirmation when it was learned that the Chamber of Commerce working through members of Congress has filed a protest to the War Department.

Fort Rosecrans, a coast artillery post on Point Loma, forms the outer defense of the city and harbor. Because of the millions of dollars expended in recent years by the Federal government for permanent land and water projects chamber officials declare it would be most unwise to throw the fortification into the discard. Even with caretakers to look after the property, it is pointed out that the fort would rapidly deteriorate unless given the attention of a trained personnel.

If the War Department authorizes the abandonment of the fort the officers and men will be transferred to Fort MacArthur, Los Angeles Harbor and to the forts in the vicinity of San Francisco Bay.

Important Notice to Candidates

Candidates are cautioned against literature and letters sent out by a jealous newspaper rival, aimed to destroy their confidence in The Times campaign by exaggerated statements and innuendo. This rival newspaper is sending its own representatives to call on candidates, claiming to be Times representatives, and letters are also being sent out purporting to come from individual candidates—all carefully prepared propaganda aimed to prevent The Times from adding to its circulation.

Candidates know too well the high standing of The Times to allow such matter to influence them in any way. Interviews have been printed in The Times from day to day showing what other candidates have accomplished in previous prize campaigns of this newspaper, and their success can be duplicated by present candidates.

WIDENING OF WHARF PROJECT

Railroad Tracks to be Located in Length of Pier

Improvements in port facilities which will materially increase the shipping advantages of Los Angeles Harbor were announced today by Maj. E. D. Ardrey, District Engineer.

The first part of the project, the Harbor Commission announced, is the widening of the wharf at Municipal Pier, Outer Harbor, to accommodate the new Pacific Mail line, and the construction of a new dock for the line.

The widening of the wharf will be 100 feet wide and will be located at the end of the pier. The new dock will be 100 feet long and 100 feet wide.

The project will also include the construction of a new wharf at the end of the pier, and the construction of a new wharf at the end of the pier.

WIDENING OF WHARF PROJECTED

Additional Length of Pier for Cargo Needs

Improvements in port facilities which will materially increase the handling capacity of Los Angeles Harbor were announced last night by H. B. D. Arbery, United States harbor engineer.

The first part of the project is the widening of the wharf at Municipal Pier 1, from 100 to 150 feet. This will enable the new Pacific Mail line to use the pier for its entire length. The addition of the new pier will be 21 feet wide and according to Harbor Engineer J. W. Laddlow will enable the cargo handling facilities of the pier to be increased to 100 per cent.

The second part of the project is the widening of the pier at present used by the Los Angeles Steamship Company and the upper end of the pier at Wilmington. The widening of the pier at Wilmington will be 10 feet wide and the widening of the pier at present used by the Los Angeles Steamship Company will be 10 feet wide.

Arbery announced that the widening of the pier at Wilmington will be 10 feet wide and the widening of the pier at present used by the Los Angeles Steamship Company will be 10 feet wide.

Local Food Market Irregular and Depressed, But Living Costs at Large Increase

A lack of uniformity in the consuming demand for California food products marks the present commodity market situation. The Los Angeles produce market is dull and has been quiet all season. Demand from the East is showing some improvement but is still below normal. The one place where it is really strong is in the export demand for canned and dried foods.

Many diverse local and national influences enter in to complicate the market's position and make predictions for the near future unstable. The fact is well known among marketing experts that it is impossible to define just what factors combine to make the population of a city or nation eat more or less food during any given period of time. A cloudy day in Chicago will limit the price of watermelons. A community, suffering from prolonged labor troubles, will cut down its food imports to an irreducible minimum.

Because so many divergent factors enter into the situation, the unevenness of the present demand for California fruits and vegetables, both fresh and dried, must be taken as a condition that simply exists and for which a satisfactory and complete economic explanation is hopeless.

SUBNORMAL DEMAND
However, the subnormal consuming demand in Los Angeles that local producers and producers are complaining of at present may be principally the product of the depressed state of mind from which the food merchants themselves are suffering. Weather conditions have something to do with a slight decrease in consumption, but the retailers are chiefly out of sorts because of falling produce prices and this naturally colors their viewpoint.

Throughout the season fruits and vegetables on the Los Angeles market have been generally declining in price on account of heavy crops in the interior. The Imperial cantaloupe yield was particularly heavy and shippers who stocked up in these melons had to take heavy losses when the price dropped, due to a surplus supply in Los Angeles. Late shipments in the lettuce crop suffered the same fate and shippers again incurred many losses. During a period of declining prices the retailer who sees his volume continually decreasing before he can market them, is bound to take a gloomier view than the situation actually warrants. Thus, the cause of the present depression in the local produce market can be laid with a good deal more justice to the dealer's pessimism than to overproduction or underconsumption.

CANNED FRUIT MARKET
July is always the most interesting month in the canned fruit market for it is then that the opening prices for the year's pack are announced. This year the eastern jobbers met the original price set with little enthusiasm and the domestic demand showed considerable slowness. Strike conditions are said to have brought about some depletion in the consuming power of the eastern centers of population, with a noticeable entering in the demand for California products.

However, the eastern jobbers who held off their buying at the early prices regretted their action later when the California Packing Corporation found it necessary to advance prices a week after naming the opening. The cause for this gain was the remarkable improvement in export demand which has taken place of late.

Because of the drought in England following upon the 1921 spell, the inquiry from English buyers has been exceptionally strong and this undoubtedly accounts for the disposal of a large part of the California fruit pack.

EXPORT DEMAND HEAVY
The Western Canner and Packer points out that the situation will probably acquaint eastern buyers with the fact that the English demand is a very important factor in the California canned fruit trade and that from now on they should buy while the buying is good.

California canned fruits can be landed in England just as cheaply as in the eastern States and, therefore, the English market, to all intents and purposes, is the same as the domestic market. The merchants of London and Liverpool compete for California canned fruits on the same basis as the merchants of New York and Boston.

In canned vegetables, peas are the item commanding the most interest. The pack will be light and the demand is strong. There is plenty of room for improvement in the market for corn and tomatoes. In canned fish there is no marked activity. There is moderate trading in salmon and less than normal in sardines. Fair interest is shown in tuna, the old pack being cleaned up and the buyers being eager for the new pack.

LIVING COSTS
Food prices have been rising in every leading country, and a glimpse over the field shows no likelihood of reductions in the near future. Leading reviews, such as Dun's, Bradstreet's and the Department of Labor, all show a tendency during the past year. The Department of Labor estimates that it costs exactly half as much again to live today as it did in 1913. Dun's estimates the rise at 48 per cent and Bradstreet's at 35 per cent.

The future holds the chief interest for most people, and in such a forecast there is a division of opinion. Rentals are showing a slight downward tendency; house furnishings are cheaper in some particulars, and building materials are bound to fall sooner or later. Wheat is about as low as it should get, and abundant crops argue for a full dinner pail next winter at moderate prices.

FRUIT WAITS ON CARS
The largest crop of deciduous fruit ever grown in California is now being picked and packed. There is said to be a pronounced shortage of cars and banking interests are concerned in watching the outcome of the crop. The packing industry is functioning at peak capacity, but fruit intended for shipment while fresh must involve some heavy losses. There is a big grape crop, and shipments to date have only been

COMPOSURE IS MARKET'S CUE

Irregular Decline Followed by Sharp Recovery

Outcome of Strike Parleys Divides Opinion

Signs of Relief in Foreign Exchange Market

BY ALEXANDER DANA NOTES

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Today's markets which were again watched anxiously for their verdict as to the probable sequel of the railway labor deadlock and the Balfour agreement, again gave the reassurance which comes from evidence of financial composure. The stock market repeated its procedure of the day before; declining irregularly for a time under pressure of sales by one group of professional speculators, then recovering all the lost ground and in most stocks more.

The bond market was disquieted strongly; the French Republic bonds recovered half of their loss of the two preceding days. Exchange rates on continental Europe advanced moderately; that reversal of the previous day's movement affecting even the German mark's price at London and New York and the Paris exchange rate on London.

Insofar as this attitude indicated the financial community's feeling over the probable outcome of the labor situation, it again seemed to be a case of suspended judgment. With no further step taken by the railway unions and no further declaration of their policy, and with the conference of mine workers and operators still under call for next Monday at Cleveland, there was recognized to be ground for at least an even balance of opinion as to the next turn of events in either strike.

Financial judgment of the day was plainly influenced by the assurances of railway men that, with their policy on seniority rights affirmed, they would get satisfactory control of their own situation. Whether the markets gave equal weight to the possibility of a settlement of the fuel embargo, with resultant decrease of manufacturing activities, it is not easy to say.

The intimation in the cables that the British Premier was preparing to explain the cause of his declaration in Parliament perhaps accounted for the signs of relief exhibited by the foreign exchange market.

Imperial is the largest irrigation district in California with about 413,000 acres under cultivation and practically year round production. Land and improvements worth approximately six times the bonded indebtedness. Average production exceeds ten times the annual charge per acre for water, bond interest, maintenance and sinking fund.

The bonds are a direct obligation of the district, payable from annual assessments, levied and collected under the same authority as taxes, and secured by a tax lien, ranking ahead of first mortgages on district lands.

These bonds are exempt from all Federal income taxes in California except Income Tax.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The general trend in today's restricted trading on the New York Stock Exchange was upward, interest centering in the oil shares and a few of the high grade industrials and specialties for which there has been a good investment demand.

Wall Street's optimistic view of the strike situation and the improvement in foreign exchanges were reflected in the strength of opening prices. After the overnight orders had been disposed of the market lapsed into pronounced dullness which was relieved during the noon hour by an attack of the short interest. However, good support was forthcoming and prices rallied and held steady to the end.

Mexican Petroleum was the individual feature, showing a net gain of 4 1/4 points for the day. Other foreign oils strengthened in sympathy. Domestic oils also advanced in the face of further price cuts for crude oil and gasoline, substantial gains being recorded by Texas Company, Coudens and Phillips Petroleum. This unbroken strength was attributed in some quarters to be covering of short contracts.

Low grade rails were in good demand, Chicago and Alton shares showing conspicuous strength in this group. Other rails held firm on limited dealings. Reports have been current that many high grade rail and industrial stocks advanced in recently have been accumulated by strong interests and withdrawn from the market, diminishing the floating supply.

Sugar stocks were strong on reports of increased prices for crude and refined products and statistics indicating that the available Cuban supply will be virtually exhausted before the new crop is ready for the market. Cuban American Sugar was at a new high for the year and other issues of that group hardened in sympathy.

Merchandise shares were in good demand, Woolworth, Julius Kayser and Mailman rising to new high levels for 1922. Other strong spots were American Can and Foundry, Federal Mining and Smelting, common and preferred.

Shipping shares, led by International Mercantile, preferred, and equipments, like American and Baldwin Locomotive were inclined to heaviness. Total sales approximately $40,000 shares.

Call money opened and held at 4 per cent. Time money was in fair demand with no change in rates. A better tone prevailed in the foreign exchange market, marked improvement abroad being reflected here. Sterling advanced 1-4 point while continental bills showed a gain of 4 to 10 points. German marks made a net recovery of over a cent, being quoted at 12 1/2 cents a hundred when the market closed. Canadian exchange was at a discount of only 5-16 of 1 per cent, a new high record.

Big California Issue

Dr. Glen Levin Swigert, lecturer in the summer school of the University of Southern California, specialist in commercial education, and chairman of the Committee of Fifteen for the Education for Foreign Service, delivered an address yesterday in the chapel at U.S.C. covering in an entertaining, discursive manner the subject in which he is especially interested.

"Training for foreign service," said Dr. Swigert, "can today be more broadly defined than a few years back when foreign service was thought of largely in reference to the overseas service of our diplomats and consuls. So far as numbers are concerned the service of the Department of State is relatively small in comparison with the service of other branches of government: Commerce and agriculture in particular, and of organized private business and social welfare work of the nation.

"Training for foreign service in consequence is losing with the passing years the peculiarly political slant it formerly had. Subjects within the field of government are just as important as formerly, but the course in training has been strengthened by the addition of pertinent subjects from the major fields of economics and sociology.

"This is due largely to the fact that economic conditions have been determining international relations for some time, and will increasingly do so in the future. Educational preparation, therefore, along this line, is becoming more and more important. This preparation over a long period of years and under the best teachers, furnishes our schools and colleges with the major requirements for a type of training which it is now the inherent right of the nation to demand of our schools and colleges that they undertake as speedily as possible, and conduct in the most efficient manner.

"In preparation for foreign service our schools and colleges must not any longer think of the somewhat limited openings in the Department of State. For example, there were only 457 American consuls at the end of the fiscal year 1921, 363 of which are in Europe. Other branches of the government, commerce in particular, are increasingly, with the generous disposition of Congress, creating more and more overseas positions.

"A profitable field of service may be found in the home and overseas branches of commerce, the National Chamber of Commerce in particular. This chamber is now represented in twenty-two of the leading commercial nations with several branches in the larger countries. There are over 1400 member-chambers of the United States Chamber of Commerce, every one of which should and will have either a foreign trade secretary, or a secretary who has had foreign trade training. There are 400,000 manufacturing establishments in the United States nearly all of which work with the technique of foreign markets, and having some knowledge of the languages spoken in these markets. Let us raise these things to the international plane, and we shall have through commerce the practical applications of the Golden Rule and, beyond all doubt, a durable peace among the nations of the world, based upon a confraternity and solidarity of interest rather than diplomatic alliances that hold only so long as the selfish interests of the contracting parties are conserved. In our true commerce, therefore, we shall not have the synthesis of all human achievements."

PETROLEUM REVIEW
Estimated daily average gross oil production increased 1819 barrels, totaling 1,500,159 barrels for the week ended July 23, compared with 1,498,500 barrels for the previous week, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute. Central Texas shows an increase of 1850 barrels. The Mexico pool, Central Texas, is reported at 69,750 barrels, against 69,750 barrels. No change in crude oil prices was reported.

IMPERIALS POPULAR
The First Securities Company, graduate managers for the $2,000,000 Imperial Irrigation District 9 per cent serial bonds offered yesterday morning, announced at 2 o'clock in the afternoon that the bonds were oversubscribed and the syndicate books closed.

BANK OPENING
The Bank of Van Nuys has invited the public to attend the opening of the new building tomorrow between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. The new structure is located on the northwest corner of Sylvan avenue and Sherman way, Van Nuys.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Business and industrial activity continued during July at relatively high rates, according to the Federal Reserve Board's monthly survey, although toward the close of the month the effects of the coal and rail strikes, served to restrain activities in various lines, especially iron and steel. Prices continued to have an upward tendency. Unemployment remains a factor only in those lines in which labor difficulties exist. Agricultural prospects are satisfactory for the country as a whole. There is a general improvement in most lines of wholesale trade, while the volume of retail trade was well sustained.

MONOLITH CEMENT
In connection with their offering of stock of the Monolith Portland Cement Company, W. J. Shaw & Co. report that the concern sold over 1,000,000 sacks of cement in the trade territory of Los Angeles during the past year. The heavy demand for their product, occasioned by the local building boom, has required the company to go into the open market during the last few months and purchase an additional 250,000 sacks in order to keep their dealers supplied.

INVESTMENT EARNINGS
Earnings of an investment banking house during the past six months active bond market are well illustrated in the report of the District Bond Company issued yesterday. In the six-month period ended June 30, this firm showed gross profits of $50,504.11, and net profits of $31,534.37 on a paid-up capital of only $250,000. Assets were placed at $661,353.90.

TICKER TICS

Rail strikers are returning to work in New York and Chicago, according to reports of various roads.

It is believed in Washington that President Harding will delay further action on the railroad strike until he has received reports from the mining area and from observers of conditions in the railroad shops. Southern Railway accepts Harding's seniority plan and invites strikers to a conference. Bituminous coal production increases; nearly 4000 more cars were loaded at the mines on Monday, as compared with the average loading last week. J. P. Morgan says European debts to United States should be canceled, because they can never be paid. Iron Age reports a decrease of

COUNTRY PROPOSAL

[illegible][illegible]

DEATH CLAIMS JAMES GIBSON

Local Lawyer Succumbs to Short Illness

Practiced Law in State for Thirty Years

Served as Judge; Was Also District Attorney

James A. Gibson

James Alexander Gibson, senior member of the law firm of Gibson, Doss & Crutcher, died yesterday morning at his home, 915 South Union avenue, after an illness of two weeks. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2:30 p. m. from the funeral parlors of Brown Brothers, 855 South Figueroa street. Private services at the Rosedale crematory will precede the removal of the body to the Rosedale, where interment will be made.

PIONEER OF STATE
Judge Gibson practiced law in California for more than thirty years and was regarded as an authority on irrigation, corporation, mining and maritime law.

He came to California from Cambridgeport, Mass., in 1874, settling in Colton, where he continued practicing law under the direction of William Gregory. In 1882 he was granted permission to practice before the Supreme Court of the state.

BORN IN BOSTON
Judge Gibson, the son of Thomas and Mary Gibson, was born in Boston, Aug. 21, 1852. His father was killed in the Battle of Shiloh, in Louisiana, April 15, 1862.

After being admitted to the bar, Judge Gibson was elected District Attorney of San Bernardino county. In 1885 he became judge of the Superior Court of that county, continuing to hold that position until 1893. During the next two years he was a member of the Superior Court Commission, the predecessor to the present Appellate Court. In 1893 he removed to San Diego, where he practiced law until 1897 when he moved to Los Angeles. Since that time he has practiced law continuously in this city.

In the past the judge was counsel for the Southern Pacific, the Pacific Electric, the First National Bank, local telephone companies and many of the other large corporations of Southern California. He was well known for the tide-gate case, the litigation involved in the ownership of the Bear Valley Land and Water Company, and the suits which arose out of the regulation of rates to Santa Catalina Island.

SERVED IN GUARD
Judge Gibson's activities were not confined alone to the profession of law. He was associated in the creation of the first irrigation dam in the West, the Bear Valley dam. He had served as a major and as assistant Adjutant-General of the National Guard of California. Because of his interest in scientific matters he had been a member of the National Geographical Society and of the Archaeological Institute of America.

He was formerly vice-president of the American Bar Association and had been president of the Los Angeles Bar Association. Judge Gibson was a member of the California, the University of Redlands, the Jonathan, Gamut and the Union League clubs of Los Angeles. He was a Mason, a member of the Shrine and an Elk. Judge Gibson was twice married. His first wife, Sarah Waterman of Colton, died before the judge later married to Gertrude Van Norden of Los Angeles. He leaves his widow and four children, J. A. Gibson, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Kingsbury, Martha and Horace Gibson, all of Los Angeles.

Judge Fails as Peacemaker in Gospel Dispute

After a futile attempt, on the part of Acting Judge Ruben S. Hamilton, to get the warring officers of the Full Gospel Dorcas Association, a philanthropic organization, to settle the fight for control, yesterday ordered Nora Hamilton, president of the association, to turn over the books of the association to Annie E. Williams, ousted secretary, and ordered that all members of the organization might inspect them. He said the warring parties that if the order was not carried out, he would enforce it. Mrs. Hamilton had the right under the articles of incorporation of the association to demand a division of the stand that she had appointed by God to be a peacemaker. She was ousted as secretary and Oscar E. Wiley seated in her place. Mrs. Williams brought suit to the possession of the office.

The Congress placing shingles on free list, it might be the kids of both sexes to have it.
Will H. Hays attend
Moore Republican meeting
hard to win an old stage
the political game.
plan to make Ignace Paderevski President of Poland has been struck a bum note, so it is.
The proposed new Women's Club building in this city is one of the finest in the west.
Is proposed that Santa Maria, Venice. If that wins
the 1% income tax, the honkey-ton on the pike?
Nationalists are taking books on fishing trips. What they to kill time with has been provided by constitutional amendment.
The solemn fact is that the very masses are to get along the fact that you will annual vacation. Surprised you not?
The machine of Cullen
to get messages from the perfected it ought to come and in getting Willie out of the morning.
A number of European are trying to balance a budget pyramid of wind. It can't be.
James Riley Marshall has been a president of a life insurance company in Indianapolis.
Thomas Riley has been president of something.
It is claimed that Battling Sullivan is the least understood in the Senate. But about body outside of Wisconsin
to be on him, all right.
The Old Homestead is being into a moving picture, but it's not much of a hit unless it is a bed room scene in the house.
Edward Edwards of New York is a candidate for re-election. He has gone after the crucial vote by announcing that in favor of beer and "light drinking" whatever that is.
Democrats who were laughed
Republicans over the Senate mix-up in Indiana and are singing quite low now.
The situation in Texas from a democratic standpoint, gives pause.
A Louisville dancer at one of the town's attempted
the other day and the "dancing" has been given
reason for the rash act.
Only no other sort of employee would be possible.
It is likely to have a candidate for the Presidency in 1924.
The person of Senator Pomeroy
This makes it unnecessary
other States to take ap-more than an academic in-
in the national convention
year.
Old-timers who have a dan-

People and Their Trouble

Elizabeth Jordan's Column.
MY LITTLE FRIENDS

"Junior," aged five, was trying to explain to his mother that he had slept so soundly he had not even dreamed. He did it in these words: "Mother, I slept so sound I didn't know I had been made!"

Betty, four, boasts loudly that she does not care for dolls. Her sister Josie, five, is devoted to dolls and does not care who knows it. On her last birthday Josie received a beautiful new doll which delighted her soul. Betty, too, was obviously fascinated by the doll, though she would not go back on her record by admitting it. She hovered about Josie, watching her play with the new possession, but not offering to touch it herself.

THE SUFFERER
That night Josie took the doll to bed with her. A little later, long-drawn wails were heard proceeding from the nursery. The child's mother hurried to the nursery door. "Josie," she asked, "is that you crying?"

"No, mother, it's Betty," said the older sister.

"What's the matter?" said Betty defiantly, mopping her eyes. "It's Josie's new doll, crying to come into my crib with me!"

Josie lent her the doll. Deborah, now eight, had written her first short story. It was very short, indeed. It was as follows:

Kitty, this is Mary. Mary, this is Kitty. How do you do?

Reading this epistolary, Deborah's mother asked her what it meant. Deborah looked thoughtful.

"I know 'actly what it meant when I wrote it," she said. "But now I forget. I guess perhaps folks that read it will know," she added hopefully.

Deborah's mother is worried. She is afraid Deborah will grow up and write books that women's clubs will discuss.

Anna Margaret, three, has a bosom friend, Katherine Randolph, of her own sex. The two infants are high-spirited, and they frequently quarrel. The other morning, when they were playing in Anna Margaret's garden, a quarrel occurred which ended in Katherine's departure for home. As she went she temporarily slammed the garden gate behind her. Anna Margaret rushed to the closed gate, pressed her little face against it, and called after her departing friend:

"Kathy Rammy," she cried piercingly, "when you go out of my garden, you leave my garden so the fresh air can get into my garden!"

HER DESPERATE PLEA
Winnie Lou, three, had watched her father go through a series of simultaneous attacks of illness which necessitated the attention of two trained nurses and of a doctor, seriously upset the household. As the situation failed to improve, Winnie decided to put it before a "changing bureau" and solemnly got down on her knees.

"Dear God," she prayed, "please make Daddy and Mamma well, and hurry up about it, for goodness sake!"

Questions
Answered

[Any reader can get the answer to any question by writing the Los Angeles Times, Bureau, Washington, D. C. The editor will give the answer. The bureau maintains a list of questions and answers. It does not attempt to settle domestic questions, and it does not give legal advice. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.]

Question: Is the name of Alan Dale, the dramatic critic, real or assumed?
H. B.

Answer: Alan Dale is the pseudonym of Alfred J. Cohen.

Q: Has it ever been held or suspected that the electrical disturbances accompanying the Aurora Borealis might be attempted communications from Mars?
A. J. R.

A: The Naval Observatory says that as far as known, no such thing has ever been held by scientists. It has long been recognized that some connection exists between sun spots and electrical disturbances on the earth.

Q: How much ground must be devoted to cemeteries in cities in proportion to the population?
G. L. E.

A: If 4000 corpses are crowded into one acre, a mortality rate of 15 per 1000 be assumed, then nearly four acres per 1,000,000 population are required annually to bury the dead.

Q: How long did it take to revise the Bible?
A. A. B.

A: The work of revision was begun June 30, 1870, and completed June 30, 1884. The revised version of the New Testament was published in England and the United States in May, 1881, and the Old Testament in May, 1885.

Q: Is Pat Kelly, who is running for the United States Senate in Michigan, a Protestant or a Catholic?
Q. D. F.

A: Mr. Kelly is a Protestant. He attends the Methodist church.

Q: What is apple must?
A. R. H.

A: This is the English term for freshly pressed sweet apple juice. Cider, in England, corresponds to our term hard cider.

Q: Who was the founder of the Pascook dynasty?
A. L. F. W.

A: Chandragupta, also known as Sandrocottus, founded this Hindu dynasty about 320 B. C. He was the grandfather of Ashoka, the great emperor of the Maurya dynasty.

Q: Cottonmouth is common name in the Southern States for the moccasin, but it is also common name applied to the copperhead.
R. I. K.

A: Cottonmouth is common name in the Southern States for the moccasin, but it is also common name applied to the copperhead.

ambitions that lead into the ways of war may be removed. Freshments for peace will get us nowhere in a snowbank rather than do what we have so smartly accused the Socialists of trying to do, "changing human nature."

For the trouble is not with personal or national ambitions as such; rather it is with the antiscientific and antihuman character of our industrial and commercial equipment; because we have failed to organize the spirit for the service of the race to keep pace with its material extensions and improvement. Essentially business is now a community function, but we have let it lie in its primitive wallow of individualism, and it remains a source of war, therefore, a breeder of war.

J. W. Robinson Co.

- Seventh and Grand -

FURNITURE

THE first week of the August Furniture Sale will end with Friday (the Store is closed all day Saturday) and the great number of people who are taking advantage of the price reductions promises even larger crowds for the future. It is therefore urged that those who have definite pieces of Furniture in mind shop as early as possible, owing to the fact that there is in many cases only one piece of a kind.

Hundreds of Pieces Half Price

For the new home or the home that needs only a new piece here and there, one may find Furniture of the highest excellence at just half the price ordinarily asked. On hundreds of pieces the prices have been cut in half. This group includes exquisitely hand-carved Tables, Benches and Chests from famous shops of Europe as well as beautiful Settees, Sofas, Davenports, Chairs, and so forth. Besides the Furniture marked at half price there are hundreds of pieces very greatly reduced, many of them close to half price. The reductions take in Robinson's entire stock of Furniture.

Hand Carved Library Tables At Half Price

Sketched are two hand-carved Library Tables from Brussels. The one in the foreground is of mahogany, the other of walnut. Both have been reduced to half their original prices for this Sale. Regularly $450 and $575 respectively. Now Half Price. A visit to the seventh floor is necessary to get any adequate idea of the tremendous values offered in every kind of Furniture. No C.O.D.s—No Exchanges—All Sales Final SEVENTH FLOOR

Outdoor Things Low Priced

BEACH Parasols in one's favorite colors (60 of them) are offered at $4.35. Gold Medal Cots that fold up conveniently to fit on the running board of one's car, $3.00. Lawn or Beach Chairs, $2.00. Arm and foot rests extra. Lean-To Auto Tents of white 8-oz. canvas with extra flap for closing front. Complete with ropes, stakes and poles, $6.50. Wooden Lawn Swings to accommodate four people. Red frame with natural color seats. $13.75. THIRD FLOOR

Sweaters and Scarfs Reduced

VERY great reductions have been taken in three groups of Sweaters and Scarfs for Friday. 60 Wool Slip-ons and Jersey Jackets in a variety of colors will be marked at a fraction of their worth on account of broken sizes. $1.95. 60 Fibre Slip-ons in fancy two-tone colors and in block patterns will be just Half Price or $5.00. 50 Drop-Stitch Wool Scarfs, 18 inches wide, and finished with fringe have striped borders. There is a good assortment of colors. Reduced to $1.95. THIRD FLOOR

Tub Silk Petticoats, $2.95

WHITE Habutai Tub Silk Petticoats daintily trimmed with lace or embroidered scallops or finished with a three-inch hem are lined throughout and are very unusual values at their price of $2.95. FOURTH FLOOR

Midsummer Reductions in Ready To Wear

THESE are reductions effective for the first time on Friday. It will be apparent to those who know values in Women's and Misses' Attire that the mark-down in every instance has been of no small consequence.

150 Misses' and Women's Cotton Frocks, $14.50

Principally of imported voiles, dotted Swiss, ratine and French gingham. In almost as many styles as there are dresses. Trimmed in drawn work, embroidered collars and other modish finishes. In white and light colors; a few in dark colors. The new reduced price $14.50

22 Camel's Hair Coats, $37.50

They are one hundred per cent camel's hair—soft and fleecy. The linings extend to the hems. There are raglan sleeves, all-around belts and large rounded pockets, crescent shaped at the top. Colors: light tan and caramel. Sizes 16 to 44. The reduced price $37.50

9 Polo Coats, $25.00

With square yokes which merge into raglan sleeves which are strapped at the cuff. Patch pockets. All-around belts. Quarter lined. The reduced price $25.00

49 Sports and Street Coats, $25.00

Irish fleeces in invisible plaids; homespun; Strelina cloth, tweeds and chinchilla are the materials. Some with set-in sleeves. Mostly full silk lined. In many good styles, in grays, blues, tans and so forth. The reduced price $25.00

43 Shantung Suits, $16.75 and $25

Inverted pleat finished with arrow; buttons; cable stitching and other tailored trimmings add the final touch of correctness to these Shantung Suits. Some of the coats are all silk lined. A number have four mannish patch pockets. Sizes are from 16 to 20; 36 to 44. 18 Suits of heavy Shantung $16.75 25 Suits of heavy Shantung $25.00

30 Jersey Suits, $12.75

In that popular mixture called "tweed jersey." Tuxedo models, full belted. In light blue, tan with a lavender tinge, henna, light green, brown and so forth. Sizes 16 to 44. The reduced price $12.75

100 Wool Skirts, $9.75

In plain gathered and wrap-around models. Of eponge, velour, flannel, tweed and novelty materials. Many were more than twice this price, but being in a broken line of sizes, sharp reductions were taken. 100 Wool Skirts $9.75 THIRD FLOOR

Girls' Wear—Boys' Wear

200 Middies, 50c

200 White Wash Middies are now offered at less than the price of the material alone. They are all white, white with blue collars and cuffs and white with canary colored braid and emblems. Sizes from 14 to 22. Friday for the first time these Middies will be marked at 50c each. At this price many early-morning shoppers will want several.

Sweaters, $5.00

Girls' all-wool Slip-on Sweaters with either round or V necks are offered in tomato, beige, brown, henna, navy, orchid and many other colors in sizes 30 to 36, at $5.00.

Bathing Suits, $2.95

Bathing Suits for children and girls are made of pure wool, which dries quickly and have fancy stripes that make them especially gay. The small sizes have tiny sleeves; the larger ones are sleeveless. There is a wide variety of colors from which to choose. Sizes 20 to 38. $2.95 and $3.95.

2-Piece Pajamas, $2.95

Pajamas for girls come in two-piece style and are made of soft, durable crepe in pink, blue or tan stripes. Sizes 10 to 18. $2.95. GIRLS SECTION—FOURTH FLOOR

179 Shirts, Half Price

They are of madras or percale of good quality. They are neck-band shirts in solid colors or stripes. Sizes are 12½, 13 and 13½.

34 Shirts, regularly $1.50
10 Shirts, regularly $2.00
60 Shirts, regularly $2.50
75 Shirts, regularly $3.50

Knicker Suits, $15.00

A group of 80 Suits have a very low price: $15.00. They are made by one of America's foremost makers of Suits for boys who give their clothes the grilling test of hard wear.

The Suits are of pure worsted and may be had in all-around belted or half-belted styles. There are light and dark colors. A number of weaves are shown, including stripes, plain colors and Tartan checks. Sizes from 6 to 18. $15.00

Swimming Suits, $2.50

The plunge into the breakers of an early morning—can anything equal it as the right start to the day!

300 All-Wool Bathing Suits are priced at $2.50. In assorted colors, with chest and skirt stripes. Sizes from 24 to 36—for small boys and larger boys. $2.50

Union Suits, 75c

The Union Suits are of nainsook—that reliable material that neutralizes warm weather.

In athletic style, sizes 24 to 34. 75c BOYS SECTION—FOURTH FLOOR

Dinnerware at Sale Prices

AS low as $12.75 for 48 pieces: that is what has happened in one section of the House Ware Department, where 30 Sets of Pope Gosser Porcelain are marked at this low figure.

That is indeed out of the ordinary, as are other Cottage and Bungalow Sets which are marked proportionately low.

Only three others may be listed in this limited space: Crescent Pattern—blue border with small baskets of flowers at intervals. 48 pieces, $34.30.

Pekoe Pattern with floral pattern in bright colors. 48 pieces, $51.90.

Cretonne Pattern with a border against a simulated cracked background which is unique and very beautiful. 48 pieces, $42.00.

All of this ware is imported from well-known manufacturers in England. BASEMENT

Fine Values in Linens

SILVER Bleach Linen Damaak Table Cloths, $6.50. At this season of the year, when visitors drop in for week ends and in between, the home-maker needs extra supplies of attractive Table Linens.

The group of fifty Silver Bleach Cloths being offered for Friday are in assorted conventional patterns, made for the new oblong table. They are in sizes 52x80, priced at $6.50.

Turkish Bath Towels—Large Size, 45c. Soft but thoroughly substantial Bath Towels at 45c offer an unusual opportunity to save.

Certainly the weave tells the story in Turkish Towels, determining the weight and consequent durability. These are closely woven Towels that would ordinarily sell for considerably more.

The size is 28x46 inches. 600 Hemmed Turkish Towels at 45c. SECOND FLOOR

Yard Goods Reduced

IMPERIAL Serge, Navy and Midnight, $1.45. Mothers with little girls who fast outgrow the skirts they wear with middies will be glad to know about this sale.

And even for skirts and frocks for themselves it will mean a great saving.

It is Imperial Serge of good texture—so good, in fact, that it customarily is marked at a much higher figure. Colors are navy and midnight blue; the width, 54 inches.

For Friday, 275 Yards of Imperial Serge at $1.45 a yard. SECOND FLOOR

SPORTS Silks Reduced to $2.85. A reduction in Sports Silks comes at the time when many women are needing fresh accessions to their wardrobes to round out the summer.

There are 250 Yards in the allotment, in self-colored checks and two-tone colored stripes. 89 inches wide. Reduced to $2.85.

500 Yards Colored Corduroys Reduced to 75c. Corduroys of dependable quality are these which Robinson's are reducing Friday.

They are in plain shades: amethyst, rose, Holland blue, beaver, silver, navy, emerald, light blue, white, apricot, pink, Belgian blue, orange, purple, gold and turquoise.

500 Yards of Corduroy 32 inches wide, reduced to 75c.

WASH Fabrics underpriced. Here are some lovely new Wash Fabrics with prices so low as to tempt one to make a frock even though one be ever so inexperienced in the cult of the needle.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Entertain Washington Guests
Complimenting Miss Adelaide Field, who is here from Washington, D. C., for a fortnight's stay, Miss Katherine Tilden has sent cards for a luncheon which she will give at the Wilshire Country Club on Thursday.

Miss Field and Miss Tilden were classmates at Goucher College in Baltimore, Md., and the charming visitor is now a guest at the home of Miss Tilden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tilden of Sierra Bonita Terrace in Hollywood.

Miss Josephine Weirick, whose engagement to Robert Banks has been announced, will share honors with Miss Field, and other guests will include Miss Mary Ellen Reed, Miss Ruth Graydon, Miss Margaret Wood, Miss Virginia Wood, Miss Edna Louise Ruwe, Miss Mildred Finley, Miss Kirtan who is the house guest of Miss Finley, Miss Frances Foster and Miss Edith Wright.

Return to Country Club

After an absence of two months spent in New York and other eastern cities, Mr. Frank O. Frank Carls is back at the Los Angeles Country Club, where they reside.

Mrs. Monette Honor Guest

Mrs. Lucille D. Monette was the honor guest at an attractive luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Frank O. Frank Carls at her home at 3817 West Adams street.

Mrs. Monette, who has been away for two years, is staying at the home of her brother, Harold G. Janeway of Vine street.

Return from Motor Trip

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Cochran and their daughter, Miss Carolyn, are back at their home in Loma Drive after a two weeks' motor trip through the northern part of the State.

New York Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cowan and their children are here from New York City and are domiciled at the Ambassador Hotel. The Cowans are frequent visitors here and Tuesday evening they were guests at a delightful supper party in the Coconut Grove.

Smart Tea Is Given

Mrs. J. T. Talbot, a recent bride, entertained seventy-five of society's young matrons and debutantes at a lovely tea yesterday afternoon at her home in Westminister avenue. The affair was in compliment to her cousin, Miss Laura Thomson, who is visiting here from San Antonio, Tex.

Miss Thomson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Thomson who are former residents of this city, and she has many friends here.

Receiving with Mrs. Talbot were Mrs. Robert H. Brush (Dorothy Giller), Mrs. Robert McNeil, Janet Prandregast and Miss Marie Edmonds. Coral gladioli with a color scheme of green and gold were used in decoration.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Talbot entertained a company of twenty-five in Miss Thomson's honor.

Beach Party Planned

Miss Edna Louise Ruwe is asking a group of young folks to be her guests at a supper party on the beach next Wednesday evening.

Guest Returns

Mrs. R. P. Oppenheimer, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Henderson Hayward of 3381 Wilshire Boulevard, left Wednesday evening for her home in Nashville, Tenn.

To Play Bridge

Miss Katherine Howard will be hostess at a small bridge party next Tuesday at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Howard of 670 South Ardmore.

To Start Work Here on Clinic and Hospital

Los Angeles is to have a $1,500,000 hospital and clinic similar to that of the Mayo Brothers in Rochester, Minn. Dr. R. B. Jenkins, secretary and treasurer of a corporation composed of local physicians and capitalists, announced yesterday that work on the first of three building units would be started within two months on a five-acre site at Washington street and Maple avenue.

The main structure is to be ten stories high and contain 400 beds. Then a clinic building has been projected and also a nurses' home, the latter with a swimming pool, gymnasium, bathroom, library and accommodation for 500 nurses. The present Medical College building of the University of Southern California will be remodeled and used as a fourth unit in the group for a postgraduate medical school.

Business Booms Here According Postal Officials

Business is booming in Los Angeles. The local postoffice, regarded as an unfailing barometer of industrial and commercial conditions, furnishes the proof.

The first three days of the present week, a total of 2,271,000 letters went through the canceling machines at the local office. This does not include those stamped in the substations, nearly all of which are equipped with canceling machines.

The record for Monday was 705,000 letters; Tuesday, 710,000, and Wednesday topped the climax with a total of 856,000 letters.

The greatest total cancelled in a single day is 1,340,000, which was in the rush of the holiday season.

PLAN WYOMING PICNIC
Former residents of Wyoming will hold their annual summer picnic tomorrow at Bixby Park, Long Beach.

Diet and Health

I, I, I: MYSELF, I HISTORY OF ME BY ME Chapter IX Indications of Trouble

Well, when I left you last week, I told that I would tell you something nice this week what my nice mama does for me. It is this: She has a lot of seven or eight-inch squares of soft cloth made from clean and ironed old sheets and tablecloths, etc., which have served their usefulness for other purposes, and she always puts one of those little squares on my napkin so that when I have a bowel movement, which I do twice or three times a day, none of the napkin goes on the floor, and so they are easier for the laundress to wash. The little squares, of course, are burned. I told you last week about what nice fitted napkins I wear now so that I have no big masses of cloth separating my beautiful legs and pressing on my tender organs.

You about the pattern? Well, tell you about the pattern for them. If you will send a self-addressed and stamped envelope through the office to her.

I did not begin to wear this stylish article when I was a tiny baby. My first napkins were made of soft cheesecloth. They were cut a yard square and hemmed, and when folded cornerwise three times making eight thick folds, they were just right. Over that, when two napkins were necessary, mama used a triangle of thick turkish toweling. Rubber diapers are harmful on babies and should not be used, my doctor says, unless occasionally for traveling.

Do you know that it is very important that napkins be thoroughly washed and thoroughly rinsed? If the soap is not thoroughly rinsed out, it is very irritating to our tender skins. As soon as my napkins are taken off, they are taken from the nursery and put in a covered pail of water to soak until the time for the daily wash. They are then thoroughly washed, boiled and thoroughly rinsed and ironed every day, and they are never under any circumstances put on me until they are very dry.

Sometimes mamas who are not thoughtful, dry the napkins after a baby urinates and then use them again. That is not good to do for the baby. Dried urine may cause chafing.

THE LAST WORD. BY ALMA WHITAKER

It is a comfort to know that both our incumbent and aspirant judges are all sternly, rigidly, irrevocably for law enforcement in general and Volstead in particular. Of course when you come to think of it, it would take a peculiarly brazen male to stand upon a woman's club platform and frankly admit he had any reservations on the subject—or that his personal affairs were so complicated with those of women that he was unable to do his duty.

After hearing the candidates on their views, I am convinced that women must feel that we have successfully purified politics very completely. None but the pure and unspiced men are here—quite obviously—offering themselves for our suffrage.

Appropos of that engaging little film which portrays the home life of one of our noted lady stars and her visitors, her neighbors are suffering slight confusion. Said neighbors take a most enthusiastic interest in the lady's private life, and they are sure to have rarely seen the visiting stars shown so intimately in the picture, while others are sure to have seen the lady in a more formal and prominent frequent visitor to the flat—whose visits occasion them many a flutter, were somehow omitted from the socially domesticated little scene. However, too much realism may prove fatal to the best interests of art.

It is rather significant that the latest crop of babies show a marked percentage of baby boys with curly golden locks and baby girls with straight uncompromising dark hair. Is the rising generation of men going to monopolize beauty?

It is also significant that most of the girls attending the summer schools, trying to make up their backward grades, are the pretty attractive ones. Almost all the homely girls graduate on schedule—while the pretty ones have been handicapped by a multitude of attractive ones. As you see, a homely girl in summer school will almost surely discover in the future that she is a beauty, rather than to make up for lost instruction.

Now if the rising generation of men are going to be better looking than the girls, you can see for yourselves what a boom in feminine intelligence is about to burst upon the world. Beauty can be such an intellectual handicap—either sex. Probably few things have proved such a handicap to women as the cult of beauty. And everyone must have observed how even masculine Adonises find it peculiarly difficult to attain intellectual standing.

I predict that when women are frankly homely and blandly accept that condition as the men do now, relieve themselves of the tyranny of the cult of beauty, and hold the beautiful charms of their sex in the same amiable contempt that men do theirs, they shall succeed to world dominion as of the night day. This vast new crop of curly golden-headed baby boys may easily prove the indirect salvation of the world.

In which connection it was interesting to note that those lady film stars associated in our minds with the more hopelessly intellectual films, the serious, and exhibiting the few and rare longer skirts, conveying the impression of the intellectual, the serious, the dignified, when they were presented publicly to Mr. Hays at the Hollywood Bowl. While those associated with the light and frivolous, whose beauty was their chief—and often only—asset, were still wearing the frisky skirt and the gorgeous peacocky aspect.

Rather significant in the light of this "finner and better" urge which shadows is—

Fashion's Forecast

LADIES' DRESS

The fashionable long waistline emphasized with a wide sash of self material adds greatly to the youthfulness of this model.

The ladies' dress pattern No. 1167 is cut in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material with 3/4 yard 34-inch contrasting and 1 1/4 yards binding. Price 15c, stamps or coin (coin preferred).

Our skins are very tender and we are full of creases, for a normal baby is plump—not fat, oh no; just pretty plump—and we get soiled and stained until we are trained. These are the reasons we chafe so easily.

Speaking about training, I don't know how that is done yet, but I expect I shall soon begin my lessons for I have heard some rumors of it.

Mama keeps some nice oxide ointment and castor oil, equal parts, mixed together, and if I get at all chafed, she will put some of that on me. She has not had a particle of chafing since she began to do that. It is so good, that I have told you many times. I have milk that is made especially for me by my own Mama and you can bet she is careful to keep herself in the best condition so my milk is always good.

There is a new baby girl next door. She is the daughter of mama's and papa's dearest friends and college mates. Everybody is so happy in our family over her, I can imagine how much happiness she must have brought to her own family.

We are going to be married when we grow up. That is the plan now. When Mr. Elliot came rushing in to our house a little while after she came he hugged my daddy and hugged him and excitedly said: "Harry, old man, I've got a daughter! It's a girl!"

And Daddy laughed and said: "Good word, old scout, she can be the wife of my son! He's a boy!"

I guess my troubles have begun.

The SUMMER issue of our FASHION MAGAZINE is now ready. It contains over 30 styles, embroidery designs, a complete seven-lesson course in dressmaking, etc. Price 10c per copy.

No patterns are kept in the Los Angeles office of The Times. To get pattern send the price, in stamps or well-wrapped coins, and the number and size of the patterns desired to this address:

FASHION DEPARTMENT,
Los Angeles Times,
230 S. Wells St.,
CHICAGO, ILL.

All orders will be handled by this branch office in Chicago and in order to eliminate the delay in forwarding we have arranged to have orders sent direct to the Chicago office. Unless otherwise specified all patterns are 15 cents each.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

If the oiled mop is thoroughly shaken after each time it is used, it will keep clean for several months before a bath in hot suds is required.

The Healthful Prune
When selecting your next batch of prunes, slice a lemon and add it to the prunes when they are almost done. It is a decided improvement.

Broken Glass
The safest way to gather up broken glass is to wipe it up with a wet woolen rag, which should then be wrapped in paper and thrown away.

Easy Cleaning
Make a bag of several thicknesses of soft muslin and fill with pulverized pumice. Stitch across upper edge to keep the powder from spilling. Window panes wiped with this pad will be shiny and clean immediately.

A Use for Borax
When doing up your fine white underwear, place a little borax in the water, which will not only tend to whiten them, but will add that bit of stiffness that is so delightful to the touch. It is easier than starch and will not stiffen nearly so much.

A Washing Hint
Clothes will last much longer and keep a better color if they are always laundered before they are badly soiled.

Good Mashed Potatoes
Use hot milk when mashing potatoes if you want them light and fluffy. Mash well with butter, then add the hot milk, salt and pepper.

Soapstone Baking
Batter cakes are more attractive and even when baked on a soapstone griddle, but are usually a trifle more tough than those cooked on a greased iron griddle.

Torn Dresses
If you should be unfortunate enough to tear a woolen dress, mend it with a raveling of the same material and, if carefully worn, it will scarcely show.

Tips to Housewives
A dry sponge will remove lint from clothing.

Always use cold liquids with baking powder mixtures.

Add a little yeast, cream to caramel filling and it will not sugar.

Buttermilk is always a successful substitute for fresh milk when making biscuits.

Faint or varnish can be removed from window glass by the use of a hard soap.

KHJ BILL IS DIVERSIFIED

Basso and Violin Solos in the Night Offering

Saxophone Numbers Mark Afternoon Bill

Piano Solo, By Request, Well Received

Basso and violinist vied with each other last night in making KHJ's program of interest to the listening public and from reports coming into The Times radio department after the concert they succeeded admirably. L. C. Dodson, basso profundo, whose voice has been heard on several occasions from KHJ, came back again last night, and, accompanied by his daughter, Edna, Dodson, and three numbers which were superbly adapted to Mr. Dodson's remarkably resonant and powerful voice. He sang "Tillie's Song," "A Voice is Calling," "Thayer's 'My Laddie' and 'The Irish Fusilier,' by Maloy.

Maurice Thote, violinist, recently arrived in Los Angeles from France and who intends to make this his home, gave a three very appealing violin solos without accompaniment. Mr. Thote is a real master of the violin and has earned an enviable reputation in musical circles of Paris. He played "Bourne" by Dvornik, "Trauerlied" by Schumann, and "Raffa's Cavatina."

Yesterday afternoon's program was confined to saxophones and piano numbers. Lillian Althaus, whose saxophone solos are familiar to listeners in from local stations, played three numbers—"Let's Leave," by Kathryn Thompson; "You'll Be Sorry," by Russell; and "Smile Through Your Tears," by Hamblen. She was accompanied by Coral Atkins and by special request Miss Atkins played a piano solo, "The Love Song," by Chopin—in which she showed ability to color her work to give it an effective appeal.

Barbara Taylor, soprano, recently arrived in Los Angeles from France and who intends to make this her home, gave a three very appealing violin solos without accompaniment. TRACE SUSPECT IN SHOP DEATH

Officers Believe Assorted Slayer in Hollywood Killer Thought Near

Fugitive Reported Weak from Two Wounds

The early arrest of the asserted slayer of Charles Burton, night watchman in the Santa Fe yards at San Bernardino, was forecast late yesterday when it was learned that Sheriff Shay of San Bernardino Deputy Sheriff Moody of the local office and Detective Sergeant Cahill had definitely traced the man to this city. Burton was killed in the San Bernardino yards on the night of July 27.

The man, according to the officers, goes by the name of Anderson, and is the same man who a year ago killed a man in Pasadena and then disappeared.

According to the officers, Sheriff Shay, close on the trail of the asserted slayer, traced the man to this city the day after the shooting. For the past three days Sheriff Shay with the co-operation of the local officers has conducted the search quietly here.

WOUNDS REPORTED

During this investigation the officers say they located a physician to whom Anderson is said to have offered $1000 to extract one of two bullets lodged in his side without notifying the authorities. The supposed friends of the man, the officers say, have been told by Anderson that Burton, before he died, succeeded in shooting his assailant twice. One of the bullets, the officers say, Anderson is said to have cut out of his body himself.

From a former close friend of Anderson, Detective Cahill declares he learned that Anderson is living somewhere in Hollywood. He is said to be in a weakened condition because of his wounds and wears a bandage about his body.

SELDOM GOES OUT

He goes out on the street seldom and then only in taxicabs, according to the officers.

The officers ask that any person seeing the man to immediately communicate with them either at Central Police Station or the Sheriff's office. Anderson's description is as follows: Five feet eleven inches, weight, 150 pounds, dark hair worn in pompadour style, sharp features, dark eyes, dark gray suit, white socks and tan shoes.

DELEGATES STOP HERE FOR VISIT

Special Train Carrying Knights of Pythias to Bay City Arrives

Bearing more than 250 people on the special train, the convention of the Knights of Pythias at San Francisco next week, a special train of fourteen cars arrived over the Santa Fe line at 5:30 p.m., yesterday. The delegates, who are chiefly from three Canadian provinces, Manitoba, Quebec, and Ontario, all the States east of the Mississippi, and the Mississippi Valley States, are making their headquarters at the Clark. They will remain in the city until late tomorrow afternoon.

Among the notable delegates arriving on the special train yesterday were William Ladew, New York Supreme Chancellor; George C. Cabell, Supreme Vice-Chancellor; and Judge R. S. Witly, Supreme Representative, from Milwaukee, who is mentioned as the next possible Supreme Vice-Chancellor.

While the convention of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, is being held at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, the Supreme Temple of the Pythian Sisters will also hold its convention at the St. Francis, Mrs. Minnie E. Bunting of Oklahoma City, Okla., Supreme Chief of this organization, is also here at the Clark with the other delegates. Another delegate to the Pythian Sisters convention, Mrs. Ada Belle Olson, Dallas, Tex., is being mentioned in her State as a possible Congressman-at-large from Texas.

ADVERTISING MAN JOINS LOCAL FIRM

Arthur Lee Callopy, former vice-president of the House of Hubble of Cleveland, and one of the best-known advertising counselors in the country, it is said, yesterday became a member of the executive staff of the Reed-Miller Company of Los Angeles.

Mr. Callopy comes to Los Angeles, according to an announcement made by the company, with a tremendous string of advertising successes behind him, upon which he expended more than $15,000,000 during the past five years.

PROPOSE BOOSTER EMBLEM

COAL FAMINES HAVE NO TERRORS TO WINTER GUESTS

OF CALIFORNIA

As a means to entice tourists to sunny California during the winter months in less fortunate States, a number of business men have proposed the adoption of a seasonal emblem and slogan to appear in miniature in all advertisements emanating from California. This emblem shows a silhouette of the United States upon which the State of California has been blocked in white and toward which three arrows point, bearing the slogan, "Coal Famines Have No Terrors to Winter Guests in California."

The winter's supply of coal is an ever-haunting problem to those who live in climates less temperate than California. Consequently, the fact that a round-trip ticket to California will more than offset the winter's coal bill will be one of the arguments used in the campaign.

These views will be developed and acted upon at La Jolla tomorrow, when a large number of business men will meet to consider opportunities for bringing tourists to California during the coming season.

Another slogan which they will consider adopting is: "Californians laugh at coal famines. Laugh with them."

OAKS DEFENDS VICE DIVISION

Files With Council Report of Activities

Answers Criswell's Charges With Figures

Points Out July Arrests Set Record

By way of reply to charges by President Criswell of the City Council that members of the police department have been levying thousands of dollars in protection money from the vicious elements of Los Angeles, Chief of Police Oaks yesterday filed with the Council a report of the vice division's activities in the July just past.

In this report he declares that more arrests for prostitution, gambling and kindred offenses were made last month than in any other single month in the history of the vice division. He lists the following figures:

Arrests for prostitution, 195; for gambling, $48; for liquor violations, 123; for miscellaneous offenses, 35. Out of this number, Chief Oaks reported, there were 463 convictions, 100 of which aggregated more than $20,000, and jail sentences totaling more than 1000 days. Fifty-one cases were dismissed and 129 were pending on the last list.

SIXTY ARRESTED

"Much attention has been given by this department to the elimination of lewd characters from public buildings, with a result that sixty men have been arrested," the report states. "Some of the most obnoxious places have been cleaned out. The importance of this work as a fight against a disgusting menace was recognized by the courts to the extent that in practically every case we have obtained convictions and heavy sentences."

A card-index system was recently installed, the Chief adds, to tabulate vice arrests, and the locations where prostitution and gambling have been discovered. Meanwhile close co-operation with the Moral Efficiency Association and the District Attorney's office has been effected, whereby redlight abatement action will be carried out with better results. Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. Doran informed the police department that hereafter he and his assistants will refuse to serve formal notices of intention to file against property used for commercialized vice whenever such violations are very apparent and the owner is making no attempt to remedy the situation.

SEEK CO-OPERATION

The report, which the Council ordered placed on file, concludes with the following plea for public co-operation:

"If all elements of the city interested in improving the moral conditions of Los Angeles would turn over to this department much of the information they are able to secure, such assistance would be of incalculable value in suppressing commercialized forces and influence."

This is especially true of prostitution and bootlegging phases of our work. The former has shown a tendency to become disguised and secreted in residential districts, and therefore, under the cloak of respectability, get quite a hold before discovered. It will require the hearty co-operation of the people to more successfully cope with this."

The report on which Chief Oaks based his report was made to him by acting Lieut. Bert Massey, in charge of the vice division in the absence of Lieut. McClary. The report included special reports of activities by Bert Hodges and officers Johnson, Hoy, Reavis, Vanaken, Shubert, Blake, Hartman, Berensweig, Bergam, Patterson, Hanes, Clementine and Officer Fore, secretary of the vice squads.

Knicker

It is a pleasure to introduce Knicker Patented Bloomers as the first real achievement toward comfort and long wear since bloomers have been known. Comfort is built right into them. They fit smooth and trim in front and between the limbs; there's no fullness except where it is needed. Complete absence of strain in any position makes the wearer unconscious of the garment.

MEMORIAL ART BODY ORGANIZED

Retail Granite Dealers Launch Association at Convention Here

The Memorial Art Association of California, composed of retailers of granite monuments, was formed yesterday at the Ambassador, where the California Granite Manufacturers' Association has been in convention. All members of the new association are members of the manufacturers' association. The separate body is designed to permit a closer co-operation between the retailers, who, however, will retain their membership in the parent organization.

The Granite Manufacturers' Association held its election yesterday, and last night its annual dinner at the Ambassador. Today the convention will close with a luncheon at the Virginia Hotel in Long Beach, preceded by a short business session.

J. D. McGilvray of San Francisco was re-elected president. The first vice-president, F. D. Mulaney of San Francisco, was made honorary vice-president for life, and Fred Brittain of Long Beach was elected first vice-president. E. W. M. Evans of Petaluma was made second vice-president; E. A. Weisenberger of San Francisco, secretary, and Max Roth of San Francisco, treasurer. The board of directors follows: John Stephens, Los Angeles; J. Simpson, San Diego; Walter Ghent, San Jose; Ben Woodhill, Stockton; William Hamilton, San Francisco.

Eighty-eight granite manufacturers and monument retailers have been in attendance—about a 90 per cent representation of the industry in the State. The most important business of the conven-

Detectives Davis and Longuevan, investigating the case, learned that the dead man's brother, the investigating police learned that the present Mexican government had placed a price on the fugitive's head and issued orders for his execution if he returned to Mexico.

From Federal special agents and Henry A. Maytorena, the dead man's brother, the investigating police learned that the present Mexican government had placed a price on the fugitive's head and issued orders for his execution if he returned to Mexico.

The fugitive, according to his friends, feared that if he were arrested by Federal officers and returned to El Paso for trial the Mexican government might secure custody of him from the United States government and place him before a firing squad.

Maytorena, who lived with his young wife at 2810 West Ninth street, was charged by the Federal officers with having taken a part in the Gen. Juan Morigo and Gen. Nicolas Rodriguez revolution in January of this year. The revolution, the Federal officers claimed, was planned in El Paso and a number of armed parties crossed the Mexican border. After several small engagements the revolution blew up and the indiments followed.

An inquest will be conducted today in the George Fitch undertaking establishment.
